14.1 – The Search for Spices

- Motivations for Exploration
 - Europeans wanted to control trade, especially the spice trade from Asia
 - Spices were used to preserve food, add flavor, make perfumes and medicine
 - Arab and Italian merchants controlled trade routes; Europeans wanted direct access
 - Curiosity from the Renaissance inspired exploration
- Important Places and People
 - Moluccas: Spice Islands in Indonesia
 - Prince Henry: Portuguese sponsor of exploration, opened navigation school
 - Cartographer: Mapmaker who helped with navigation
 - Vasco da Gama: Portuguese explorer who reached India by sailing around Africa
- Portugal Leads the Way
 - Prince Henry's explorers reached Madeira and Azores islands
 - 1415: Seized Ceuta in North Africa
 - 1488: Bartholomeu Dias reached Cape of Good Hope
 - 1497: Vasco da Gama reached Calicut, India and started a Portuguese trading empire
- Spain and Columbus
 - Columbus wanted to reach East Indies by sailing west
 - Sponsored by King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain
 - Backed by Spain in 1492, found Caribbean islands
 - Thought he reached Asia; called natives "Indians"
 - Later voyages revealed new continents
- Treaty of Tordesillas (1494)
 - Line of Demarcation: Split non-European world into Spanish (west) and Portuguese (east) zones
- Magellan's Voyage
 - 1519: Magellan set sail to find Pacific route
 - Found the Strait of Magellan, crossed the Pacific Ocean
 - Killed in the Philippines
 - 1522: Survivors circumnavigated the globe

Key Review Questions (14.1)

1. Why did Europeans want to explore sea routes to Asia?
 - To gain direct access to the spice trade and avoid Arab and Italian middlemen.
2. What impact did Prince Henry and Vasco da Gama have on exploration?

- Prince Henry funded navigators and opened a school; da Gama reached India and started a profitable trade route.
- 3. How did the Treaty of Tordesillas affect global exploration?
 - It divided the world between Spain and Portugal, encouraging both to build global empires.

中文总结 (14.1)

欧洲人在文艺复兴时期受到好奇心和香料贸易的渴望驱使，开始探索通往亚洲的新海路。葡萄牙的亨利王子和达·伽马等探险家推动了非洲沿海的探索并建立了通往印度的航线。哥伦布向西航行发现了新大陆，引发了西班牙和葡萄牙的殖民竞争。教皇划定了“教皇子午线”，随后签订《托尔德西利亚斯条约》，使世界被这两个国家划分，从而开启了全球殖民的新时代。

14.2 – Turbulent Centuries in Africa (probably not in the test)

- Portuguese Presence
 - Built forts on West African coast for trade (gold, ivory, slaves)
 - Attacked East African cities like Mombasa and Malindi to control trade
 - Stayed near coasts; avoided interior due to resistance and lack of maps
- Slave Trade
 - Slavery existed in Africa before Europeans arrived
 - 1500s-1600s: Slave trade became the most important trade item
 - Europeans relied on African rulers to supply captives
 - Affonso I of Kongo tried to stop the trade, but failed
- New African States
 - Asante Kingdom:
 - Founded by Osei Tutu, united the kingdom, defeated Denkyera
 - Controlled gold and slave trade through monopolies
 - Played Europeans against each other
 - Oyo Empire:
 - Used wealth from slave trade to build army and conquer neighbors
- Dutch and Other European Settlements
 - 1652: Dutch built Cape Town, settled by Boers (Calvinist farmers)
 - Boers enslaved/killed locals, pushed north, causing conflict
 - By 1700s, British and French also built forts and sponsored exploration

Key Review Questions (14.2)

1. Why did Portugal mainly establish coastal forts in Africa instead of inland colonies?
 - Resistance from African states and a lack of maps made inland colonization difficult.
2. What role did African leaders like Affonso I play in the slave trade?
 - He resisted the trade and wanted to modernize his kingdom but ultimately failed to stop it.
3. How did the Asante and Oyo empires grow from the slave trade?
 - They used wealth and weapons from the trade to build armies and conquer neighboring groups.

中文总结 (14.2)

葡萄牙在非洲沿海建立贸易据点，希望避开阿拉伯商人直接获取香料和黄金，并迅速参与到奴隶贸易中。非洲统治者如刚果的阿方索一世试图终止奴隶贸易但未成功。与此同时，一些

国家如阿散蒂和奥约帝国利用奴隶贸易壮大军事和经济力量。荷兰、法国和英国也逐渐在非洲扩张，建立殖民据点。

15.2 – Spanish and Portuguese Colonies in America

- Governing the Empire
 - Divided into provinces like New Spain and Peru
 - Viceroys ruled in the king's name
 - Church worked with government to convert Native Americans
- Economy and Labor
 - Strict trade control: colonies could only export to Spain and buy Spanish goods
 - Encomiendas: power given to Spanish conquistadors to force Native Americans to work in mines/plantations
 - Bartolomé de Las Casas spoke out for the Natives
 - New Laws of the Indies tried to protect Natives, but still have peons
 - Peons: workers in “debt”, often for life
- African Slavery
 - Las Casas suggested using Africans (later regretted it)
 - Millions of Africans brought to Americas to work
 - Some became artisans, others rebelled or escaped
- Colonial Society
 - Peninsulares: Spanish-born, top class
 - Creoles: American-born Spanish descendants
 - Mestizos: Native + European, Mulattoes: African + European
 - Native and African people were the lowest classes
- Culture and Education
 - Blended Native, African, and Spanish traditions
 - Cities had universities and churches
 - Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz: poet and scholar who joined convent

Key Review Questions (15.2)

1. What system did Spain use to control Native American labor?
 - The encomienda system, which allowed forced labor and led to abuses and population decline.
2. How did Bartolomé de Las Casas influence Spanish colonial policy?
 - He advocated for Native rights, leading to the New Laws of the Indies (though poorly enforced).
3. What role did the Catholic Church play in Spanish colonies?
 - It helped convert natives, provided education, and acted as a tool of Spanish control.

中文总结 (15.2)

西班牙建立美洲殖民地后，通过副王制度管理各省，并与天主教会合作推行宗教转换。殖民经济依赖金银和种植园经济，采用了恩科米enda制度迫使印第安人劳作，导致人口锐减。后期引入非洲奴隶。殖民社会等级分明，文化融合中产生了新族群与文化表现。

15.3 - Struggle for North America

- New France
 - Founded in 1608 (Quebec); slow growth due to climate
 - Focused on fur trade, fishing, and missionary work
 - Jacques Cartier explored St. Lawrence River
 - Louis XIV boosted population but banned Protestants
- English Colonies
 - 1607: Jamestown founded for profit (tobacco)
 - 1620: Pilgrims founded Plymouth for religious freedom
 - Mayflower Compact: early step to self-government
 - Colonies grew by farming, fishing, and trade
 - Many used slave labor on plantations
 - English allowed more self-government than Spanish or French
- Colonial Rivalries
 - Competition between Spain, France, England, and the Netherlands
 - 1754: French and Indian War began aka 7 year war between England and France. (which England won)
 - 1763: Treaty of Paris ensure Britain's dominance in North America

Key Review Questions (15.3)

1. Why did New France grow slowly?
 - Harsh climate discouraged settlers; fur trade was more attractive than farming.
2. What were the goals of English colonies?
 - Some sought profit, others religious freedom; many developed self-government.
3. What was the outcome of the French and Indian War?
 - Britain gained control over most of North America through the Treaty of Paris (1763).

中文总结 (15.3)

法国在加拿大发展缓慢，以毛皮贸易为主；英国殖民地则因宗教或经济原因而建立，逐步发展出自我管理体系。17世纪英法之间为争夺北美控制权展开多次战争，最终英国在法印战争后取得优势。

15.4 - Atlantic Slave Trade

- Triangular Trade
 - 1st leg: Europe → Africa: guns, cloth, cash (manufactured goods)
 - 2nd leg: Africa → Americas (Middle Passage): enslaved Africans
 - 3rd leg: Americas → Europe: sugar, molasses, rum, tobacco, cotton (raw materials)
- Middle Passage
 - Brutal voyage, many Africans died from disease, starvation, suicide
 - Slaves tightly packed on ships known as "floating coffins"
 - Some resisted or mutinied, little to none of them succeeded
- Effects
 - Extremely profitable, helped colonial economies grow
 - Devastated African societies; millions died or were enslaved
 - Estimated 11 million Africans reached the Americas

Key Review Questions (15.4)

1. What was the triangular trade?
 - A three-part system linking Europe, Africa, and the Americas with goods and enslaved people.
2. What made the Middle Passage so deadly?
 - Overcrowding, disease, starvation, and brutal treatment led to massive death tolls.
3. How did the slave trade impact African societies?
 - It caused population loss, warfare, and long-term social disruption.

中文总结 (15.4)

大西洋奴隶贸易形成三角贸易体系，非洲人成为最重要的“商品”。中间航程极为残酷，非洲社会因人口损失、战争和道德解体而遭到巨大打击。美洲经济尤其是种植园经济高度依赖奴隶劳动。

15.5 - Effects of Global Contact

- Columbian Exchange
 - Exchange of plants, animals, and diseases between continents
 - New foods increased world population (potatoes, corn)
 - European diseases killed many Natives
- Commercial Revolution
 - Inflation caused by excess of silver/gold gained.
 - Rise of capitalism: private ownership and profit
 - Use of joint-stock companies and putting-out system
- Mercantilism
 - National power = gold/silver reserves
 - So must export more than import
 - Colonies existed to benefit mother country
 - Governments used tariffs and monopolies to protect economy
- Impact on Society
 - Merchants and skilled workers became richer
 - Nobles lost power (land-based wealth)
 - Peasants remained poor, bigger wealth gap.

Key Review Questions (15.5)

1. What was the Columbian Exchange?
 - The global transfer of plants, animals, people, and diseases following exploration.
2. What economic changes did the Commercial Revolution bring?
 - Rise of capitalism, inflation, new business methods like joint-stock companies.
3. What is mercantilism and how did it affect colonies?
 - Economic theory that colonies exist to enrich the parent country by providing raw materials and markets.
